Saif Osamah Dakhil

programmer

● Brief summary

I studied in the Information Technology Department, learned the basics of programming, and completed my educational journey on various Internet courses. I now have experience in designing and programming websites and programming mobile applications, in addition to the ability to deal with different programming languages. An international referee recognized by the Arab Society for Robotics and Artificial Intelligence, she worked as an external lecturer at Al-Furat Al-Awsat Technical University in the Information Technology Department and a member of the Information Technology Center at the Islamic University.

● educational background

Administrative Technical College - Information Technology Department (2017-2021)
In this section, I studied everything related to the basics of programming and gained the experience necessary to begin professionally in the many programming languages.

● Experience

- I have the necessary experience in programming websites and applications
  The mobile phone is that I work in the IT Center and the university's private developer
  I developed and programmed many websites and systems in places
  And different companies

- I have experience in explaining and understanding many programming tools and languages
  I worked as an external auditor in the Information Technology Department at Al-Furat Al-Awsat Technical University

- Participated in many local and Arab competitions
  Robot programming and artificial intelligence is a recognized Arab referee
  By the Arab Association.

● call me

✉ +9647724151733
saifmalallah7@gmail.com

📌 Iraq / Najaf

● full Stack Developer

● skills

PHP
90%

Node js
90%

React
90%

JavaScript
90%

Python
80%

flutter - Dart
80%

C# 80%